

In June of 2011, we announced our new Children's Whole Life (CWL) product available for ages 14 days to 25 years. This product is ideal for parents and grandparents who want to protect their children from an unexpected loss and protect the child's future insurability.

With the introduction of this product for the younger ages, Effective May 1, 2012 we will be adjusting the issue ages for our Whole Life Express (WLE) to begin at age 26 through 80 years of age. This change allows both products to provide the protection and coverage for the appropriate age groups.
